WEDDING GUESTS BEGAN ARRIVING EARLY TODAY

Washington, Nov. 25.—Indian summer weather ushered in the wedding day of Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson and Francis B. Sayre.

Carriages began early rolling up to the white house portico and there was a distinct touch of holiday atmosphere everywhere. In the interior of the white house—floral bower in itself—everything was quite in readiness for the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock. At the executive offices some of the wedding guests came early to pay their respects to President Wilson.

Col. E. M. House of New York, an intimate friend; Cleveland H. Dodge, a Princeton classmate of the president and John A. Wilson, a cousin, were among the first to arrive. The president had but one business engagement—a cabinet meeting.

Some of the bridal party stopping at the white house were entertained at luncheon by Associate Justice Lamar of the supreme court and Mrs. Lamar. It was the last of the series of pre-nuptial functions.

The President and Mrs. Wilson had some of their relatives and friends at luncheon.

Mrs. Wilson visited the executive offices with guests, showed them the President's office and the cabinet room and walked through the south grounds. Charles W. McAlpin, secretary of Princeton University, Andrew C. Imbrie, Edward Howe, Professors Osgood and Parrot and a score of long-time residents of Princeton were early callers at the White House. Mr. Sayre and his best man, Dr. Grenfell, took a long walk in the morning and were at the White House for luncheon. Miss Mary Tumulty, the nine-year-old daughter of Secretary and Mrs. Tumulty, was to be the youngest guest at the wedding. None of the cabinet children had been invited.

It became known today that the wedded couple will spend the greater part of their honeymoon abroad. It is thought they will sail within a week, though the time of their departure and destination is being kept secret.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Simplicity with dignity—the same ideal which President Wilson has cherished for his administration since its inauguration—was the predominant note in the arrangements for the marriage late today of Jessie Woodrow Wilson, second daughter of President and Mrs. Wilson, and Francis Bowes

During the 112 years that have elapsed since the White House was built, twelve weddings have taken place there and it falls to the lot of Miss Wilson to be the thirteenth, a coincidence all the more remarkable because the President often has told his friends that the number thirteen has run through his life as a harbinger of good luck. Curiously enough the bridal party and minister number just thirteen.

The ceremony was solemnized in the historic East Room, majestically decorated in masses of flowers for the occasion, at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, but long before that hour the White House grounds assumed a holiday appearance.

Notwithstanding its official brilliancy, there was a distinct touch of homeliness in the day's affair. The Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Princeton, N. J., where Miss Wilson long taught a Sunday Bible class and where the Wilson family worshipped for a score of years, had been selected as the officiating clergyman. The maid of honor was the eldest daughter of the President, Miss Margaret Wilson. The bridesmaids were the bride's younger sister, Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, and Miss Mary G. White of Baltimore; Miss Adeline Mitchell Scott of Princeton, and Miss Marjorie Brown of Atlanta, the last a relative and the others chums of childhood days.

The best man was Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, with whom Mr. Sayre spent many months ministering to the sick and needy on the rock-bound Labrador Coast. The ushers were the groom's college mates—Benjamin B. Burton of New York, Dr. De Witt Scoville Clark, Jr., of Salem, Mass., Dr. Gilbert Horray of Montclair, N. J., and Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., son of the Justice of the Supreme court.

There were but four hundred invitations issued—no less than at the Roosevelt wedding seven years ago—but the Wilsons are newcomers in Washington, whereas the Roosevelt administration was then five years old.

Members of the Cabinet and their wives and families, as well as the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States and their families, the Ambassadors and Ministers, representing kings and emperors throughout the civilized world, the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall, the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Champ Clark, Senator Kern and Representative Oscar Underwood, the Democratic leaders; and Senator Gandy and Representative Mann, the minority leaders of Congress, and their wives—these were the persons invited because of their official position, though among them were many close friends of the Wilson family.

Mayor Hunt Complies With Gov. Cox's Order and Closes Saloons

Washington, Nov. 25.—Mayor Henry T. Hunt today gave orders to close all saloons in the city that did not have licenses. Mayor Hunt however, said that he would not change his policy and it was a surprise today when the order to close all saloons in the city was issued. These include the 27 saloons the chief of police was issued.

W. C. Scott, a saloonkeeper who was refused a license submitted to enter an ample defense against his extradition; that he would not evade legal process and would appear at any time the state department sets for a hearing.

Zelaya's extradition is sought, it was learned, on charges that he was responsible for the murder of two of his countrymen in 1901. The deaths of Cannon and Groce do not figure directly in the present proceedings.

Staeger said Zelaya was refused to enter an ample defense against his extradition; that he would not evade legal process and would appear at any time the state department sets for a hearing.

The action brought considerable relief as the situation was growing extremely tense and intimations that the mayor might be removed from office had been made.

The action of Byron M. Clemendening, chairman of the state liquor license commission, in calling on the mayor and urging that the law be enforced, is believed to have caused the change in front. The mayor informed Clemen dening that the police court took no action in the cases of the men cited to appear before it, then he would order the saloons closed. The police court this morning postponed action on all the cases and the mayor ordered them to be closed.

County liquor license commissioner Marschner also attended the conference which was held in the mayor's office.

The East Room as it was prepared for the wedding was a picture of grandeur. The three crystal chandeliers with their pseudo-candle lights were to be but half-illuminated, spreading a dim but suffused light over the gold trimmed walls and their cream colored pilasters, their huge vases and mantels of colored marble. The walls of the East Room are covered with wood paneling, the ornamental ceiling is done in stucco and set in the walls are twelve low relief panels, their subjects from Aesop's fables. The window drapes of heavy yellow silk damask were hung loose today and the shades drawn. At the east end of the room facing the Treasury building, there is a series of four windows, broken by piers. It was in front of these windows on a dais banked with flowers that the wedding ceremony was performed.

The windows were draped with a large lambrequin of old gold plush with curtains on either side. Wherever there was a loop or wherever the overhanging borders of the lambrequin joined, there were large ropes of smilax and bunches of lilies. In front of these windows a platform approached by two semi-circular steps had been erected. The platform itself was covered with a rug, and im-

THOUSANDS WALK OUT; MAY SETTLE

General Electric Employ- ees of Schenectady Leave Machines

A CONFERENCE IS HELD

Some of Those Who Quit

Forced Them Out Against Their Will.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Several thousand employees of the General Electric company struck this morning shortly after 8:30 o'clock. The men and women walked out while a conference was in progress between General Manager Emmons, Superintendent Smith and union officials.

There was no disorder among the striking employees. Many of the workers expressed confidence that an amicable agreement would be reached soon.

About 10,000 workers still were at the plant when the strikers left. None of them was members of the unions. The plant is run on the open shop plan.

Neither Frank Dujay nor Miss Mabel Leslie the two union leaders whose removal from their work caused the walkout, was in evidence this morning.

Later in the day Dujay and Miss Leslie addressed 1,600 women who crowded into Mayor Lunn's People's church. Other labor leaders spoke at meetings held in many halls throughout the city.

Many of the workers said the unions forced them to quit work against their wills and demanded a full explanation of the situation.

J. J. McEntee, an international officer of the machinists union who has been acting as go-between for the men and the company left for Chicago this morning.

A statement he gave out last night says, there would be no strike answered the union men and his departure followed. The entire office force, 2,000 men, was dismissed for the day at noon. Pickets have been placed about the plant.

In a brief statement issued today Mayor Lunn said that no strikers would go hungry so long as he was mayor.

The general feeling among the workers was that they would not be out long. Many of them felt that the walkout today was most in the form of a demonstration than a strike.

Mayor Lunn was active in trying to bring employers and workers together. He requested a conference with Emmons at noon today.

After a conference with labor leaders, Mayor Lunn issued this statement this afternoon:

"The strike of 15,000 American Federation of Labor workers brings Schenectady face to face with the most serious situation in her history. The two persons involved in the controversy are merely incidental. The union men claim the issue is not that of individuals but of discrimination against organized labor.

"I certainly hope for a speedy settlement of what promises to be a gigantic struggle. If the strike continues and picketing is decided upon by the unions, the pickets will be given every legal protection."

Labor leaders said that pickets had not been authorized by the strike committee and that the men who patrolled the company's gates were acting voluntarily.

Zelaya's extradition is sought, it was learned, on charges that he was responsible for the murder of two of his countrymen in 1901. The deaths of Cannon and Groce do not figure directly in the present proceedings.

Staeger said Zelaya was refused to enter an ample defense against his extradition; that he would not evade

kneeling bench upholstered in white cloth, tied with white satin ribbons and tilted out with bride roses and lilies. Behind this, with just enough space for the officiating clergymen to stand, was a mass of palms and lilies with a great bunch of lilies.

Everybody was to stand on the glistening parquet floor, for there are no chairs in the East Room except on rare occasions at musicales.

The so-called officials, including members of the Cabinet, the Vice-President and the Speaker of the House and their families, the Justices of the Supreme Court and diplomatic corps and their ladies were seated in the southern half of the room, while the guests generally were to stand in the Northern half with the immediate families of the bride and groom in the aisle between, surrounding the dais after the bridal party had reached the floral bower and improvised altar. Two robes wound in white satin marked the green carpeted aisle.

At exactly half past four o'clock, the President and Mrs. Wilson descended the main staircase from the family

Dining Room, where the bridal procession was to be formed. Mrs. Wilson and the members of the two families were escorted through the parlors to the southern end of the East Room and finally to a place just in front of the dais. Mr. Sayre and the best men came in from the Blue Room, meeting the procession of bridesmaids and the bride at the foot of the dais.

From the western end of the long corridor at the State Dining Room, the bridal procession formed. In the michiels of the corridor, palms and tropical plants had been placed. Each of the bridesmaids, escorted by one of the ushers, marched slowly into the East Room to the strains of the famous

Lohengrin wedding march, played by the Marine Band. Last the bride entered, leaning on the arm of the President, and preceded by the maid of honor. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, while the bridesmaids carried pink roses toned

in with their pink dresses.

As the bride and her father reached the altar, the President paused while the groom stepped forward and lead the bride up the low steps to the broad

THE GREAT COUGH CURE

MUST GIVE BOND OF $1000
TO AUDITOR

By a provision of the new license law, which many are inclined to view questionably, dealers who were in business in this county on May 26, 1912, and up to Nov. 24, and who were denied the license privilege, are required to appear personally before the county auditor and give bond in the sum of $1000 as assurance that they will not violate the spirit of the law.

The $500, representing the assessment for the next half year, is charged up against these dealers and real estate. If they give the bond of $1000, approved by the county clerk and accepted by the auditor, then the latter may issue a refund or remitter for the amount; in other words, the $500 charge is literally scratched off the books. If the $1000 is not given the $500 charge stands as a lien against the property where the business was last conducted. Otherwise the responsibility shifts to the bond which represents twice the amount of the half year assessment.

HUNTING PARTY
GIVES MUSICALE
AND A DINNER

A party of Newark huntmen, whose pilgrimages into the Flint Ridge wilds each year have become a fixed event in the fall calendar entertained on Wednesday of their week's hunting season, giving a duck and chicken dinner to their many friends in the neighborhood who always extend the every courtesy to the gunners during the first week of the open season.

Those in the hunting party were:

Charles Reel, Joseph Duncan, Jr., Harry Duncan, William Seigel, Henry Seigel, Brice Staugh, Charles Schick and Jasper Wilson, all of Newark.

Wednesday evening was set aside for the big event to which their friends in the neighborhood flocked to enjoy the toothsome viands provided by the party's chef.

Following the dinner, their guests helped to stage a musicale which furnished keen enjoyment to the entire party. "Uncle" Josh Brown and Jake Loughman provided some dandy music with their fiddles while Seigel brothers entertained with some splendid fancy dancing. Comic songs by Joe Duncan, Jr., was another feature of the evening's entertainment which was greatly enjoyed.

The Newark party returned home Sunday. They had a splendid week of hunting except that the warm weather made it necessary for them to reduce the size of the game bags as it was found impossible to keep the game without salting it down.

Society

On Monday, Mrs. C. G. Nevins entertained The Investigators at her home in South Third street. The club members and a number of guests enjoyed the following Thanksgiving program:

Quotations—Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving Celebrations, Past and Present—Miss Bertha Stevens.

Puritan Legends—Mrs. Harry Postle.

Mrs. Chandler Tucker, a guest, favored the club with two solos, "Banjo Song" (Sidney Homer: "Bob o'Link, Bischoff").

Reading—Mrs. Fred Fulton.

Critic—Mrs. G. M. Steffee.

The club adjourned to meet December 1st with Mrs. Samuel Sachs in Clinton street.

Mildred Bucy charmingly entertained a few friends Saturday afternoon at her home in honor of her twelfth birthday anniversary. The hours were spent in music and various games and prizes were awarded to Joseph Criss and Helen Barcus in the guessing contest, and in the slinger contest to Edith Wilkin and Katherine Hoodlett. At three o'clock a dainty luncheon was served. The dining room was prettily arranged with two tables in red and white, the large centerpiece being poineettina and dainty place cards seated the children of the street.

A very interesting meeting of the Monday Talks was held in the Y. W. C. A. on the club day of this week. The first paper, entitled "The Christ in Art," was given by Mrs. L. P. Franklin. Miss Neal gave a delightful talk on "My Visit to Foreign Shores" and illustrated her talk with lantern slides, of pictures she had taken while abroad.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. J. P. Latimer, and her two daughters, Mrs. J. S. Elliott and Miss Bertha Latimer for a reception which will be given at the Latimer home in Hudson avenue on Friday afternoon of this week.

Miss Katherine Schaller entertained at her home in Sixth street on Monday evening, honoring Miss Anna Weiler, a bride-to-be. A miscellaneous shower was given for the honor guest and the evening was informally spent.

Helen Davis, Grace Hohl, Eva Stare, Katherine Hoodlett, Helen Barcus, Edith Wilkin, Onie Mills, Helen Boring, Gerald Hillier, Harry Hardwick, Joseph Criss, Charles Kunkel, John Thomas Bucy and Master Edward Stanton Bucy.

Mildred received a number of nice presents.

A concert which will be of great interest in musical circles and among those interested in charitable work is the following: Miss Weiler, Mrs. John Deardurff, Mrs. William Gallagher, Misses Kate Butler, Julia Belmar, etc.

Most of the musk that is exported from Tibet is bought by a French musk was very light in 1911 and 1912 due to the Chinese revolution and

Good Cheer Aids Digestion of Food

Byssopics Can Make the Best of the Family Happy by Using a Laxative-tonic.

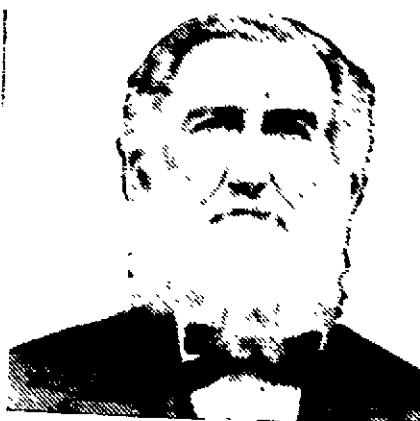

The temper of the family and the taste of the food digest so much on the good digestion that each individual present finds the experiences of some form of dyspepsia who overcame their trouble should be of interest to those who are suffering in this way.

The best advice one can give is to eat slow and to eat often—so much so that each mouthful is a meal. However, if slow eating and eating too often fail the heart and are not close to nature, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Peppermint is the best remedy. This remedy is an excellent laxative and in addition to aid in the digestion of the food, acts directly on the liver and spleen, reducing them of the accumulations of waste that should long ago have been passed on. It is said to be a pleasant-tasting, and results are guaranteed.

Mr. S. Martin, of Jo Lin, Mo. now 77, thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Peppermint has helped him to a longer and happier life. He has not felt so good in years as he has since taking this excellent medicine and in spite of his 77 years he says he feels like a boy.

It is the ideal remedy for indigestion, no matter how severe, constipation, no matter how chronic, colic, headaches, ease on the stomach, drowsiness after eating, and similar annoyances.

You can obtain Dr. Caldwell's

MR. S. MARTIN.

Person at any drug store for forty cents or one dollar, the laxative being bought by hundreds of families directly from with its manufacturer.

Results are always guaranteed.

When you use Syrup Peppermint you will see the tendency of chewing candies and tablets or of taking capsules, salts, pills and similar drastic medicines. Unlike these, Syrup Peppermint does not lose its good effect, and it automatically strengthens the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work, soon restores these organs to normal.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 111 Washington St., Mondovi, Wis. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

Last Night's Show.

"Within the Law" played a return engagement at the Auditorium last evening to a large audience, almost capacity. The reputation of the play is well known to Newark theatregoers and the excellent work of the producing company was demonstrated at their first appearance. Miss Jane Gordon was cast for the star role and showed her ability and cleverness as an emotional and versatile actress. The supporting company was excellent and those who attended the play were well repaid by an evening of rare enjoyment.

The next attraction at the Auditorium is the Edison Talking Pictures which come Thursday, morning and evening.

The Edison Talking Pictures.

The success of this realistic drama in London and New York has been most pronounced and in its present tour is meeting with the same emphatic approval. Miss Lillard is an actress of wide experience and her portrayal of the character of Peggy adds greatly to her well-earned reputation.

A BIOGRAPHY OF REV. BILLY SUNDAY

The spotlight has been turned on Uptown, Ohio. The capital of Champaign county now can qualify as the scene of the real start of Rev. Billy Sunday in his world-famous evangelistic work.

The fact is established by Dr. J. W. Chapman, another evangelist well known in Ohio, who outlines the details in the biography of the "Evangelist" just written by Theodore T. Frankenberg, of the Ohio State Journal, which is to be issued shortly by M. C. Cilliland & Co.

NEXT SESSION TO BE BUSY ONE

On Convening, Congress Will Go to Work in Earnest.

UNITED ON MEXICAN CRISIS

Little Criticism of Wilson's Course
Made by Republicans—Likely That Suffragettes Will Win a Victory in Congress and Have Committee Appointed—Congressmen Tired.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 25.—[Special]—As the time approaches for the end of the first session of the Sixty-third Congress it appears that the two houses might just as well have been busy on general legislation. The real fear lurking in the minds of the leaders was that the赤字, not being hampered by appropriation bills and actual necessary legislation in the regular session, might run wild.

I do not think that idea was in the mind of the president. He thought that if congress was confined to the tariff and currency the attention of the country would be focused on the two houses and hurry the two important bills. That idea has prevailed at other times but it has never hastened legislation. When the regular session convenes next week it must go to work in earnest, and it will have much to do.

Criticism Withheld.

Aside from a declaration months ago by Senator Lodge that the United States government should put an end to the killing of Americans in Mexico and a subsequent declaration by Senator Borrows to the effect that we should intervene in Mexico, there has been little criticism of the administration by the Republicans. Democrats in the house have been as severe as those senators. But it seems that there are Republicans who are boiling over with words.

Congressman Julius Kahn of California, the ranking Republican member of the committee on military affairs, is one of them. "We have no right," he says, "to tell any government what kind of a ruler it shall have. If the people of Mexico are satisfied with an assassin that is their business. When a mob broke into the palace and murdered the king and queen of Servia the same mob dictated who should fill their places. Europe did not interfere and had no right to interfere. Those are quarrels which governments must settle themselves."

Other Republicans have been talking in the same strain, and there is a possibility that a storm will break some time, although the efforts have been in the direction of keeping a solid line of support back of the president in dealing with the Mexican situation.

"Did You Get a Bid?"

The question of the day, also of the hour, has been, "Did you get an invitation to the White House wedding?" As the invitations were limited nearly everybody could say that he was not so honored. There was tremendous pressure exerted by certain exclusive fashionables to get the invitations.

Suffrage Committee Likely.

It seems likely that a suffrage committee will be created in the house. It will be an act of "following the lines of least resistance." Even men who do not intend to vote for woman suffrage may say, "It will do no harm to give them a committee; that does not mean granting suffrage." Then there is the tendency of American men to grant the requests of women, particularly when those requests do not mean any particular trouble to themselves. A woman suffrage committee in the house will be hailed as a great victory by the suffragists. The senate already has such a committee.

Leadership Not Complicated.

Leader Underwood was careful not to complicate the leadership succession in designating men to take his place while he was in Alabama making his campaign for the senate. He named members who will not be candidates for the honor to make the necessary motions for adjournment, etc. Neither Ketcham of North Carolina nor Palmer of Pennsylvania will be even a temporary leader. Ben Johnson of Kentucky, Cordell Hull of Tennessee and one or two others were the "understudies of Underwood," as one man remarked.

Wasn't Afraid to Say It.

Congressman Thomas of Kentucky was not afraid to say that he wanted his mileage. He spoke right out in the house on the subject. "I want my mileage, and my creditors want it," declared Thomas, "and nine-tenths of the members of the men on the floor of this house feel the same way about it." Whether or not that is true, we may be sure that mileage for the special session will be a matter of a record vote. It will be put in an appropriation bill by a vote as long as no record is made when it comes to going on record as voting for the mileage the majority will run away.

Getting Tired.

"We have been in session almost continuously for six years," remarked Senator Brandegee, "and most everybody is tired. I was never so sick of anything in my life," continued the Connecticut senator, "as I am of the eight of Pennsylvania avenue. I am trying to find new routes to and from the capitol."

Lots of people attract attention who are not in other ways attractive.

STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

Old people, to overcome the weakening, debilitating effects of increasing age, often make a very sad mistake in using so-called "remedies" that contain alcohol and dangerous or habit-forming drugs. Often this stuff, because it livens and brightens them up a little just after taking a dose, leads them to imagine that it is doing them good. When it is, it is. Remedies that rely for their sake on such decent, do harm, because the false excitement of the nerves and heart leaves them worse than they were before.

Rexall Oil Oil Emulsion is a real medicine—a splendid body and strength-builder, especially good for old people, because it furnishes to the system ingredients necessary to repair wasted tissues, strengthen the nerves, give new energy and a younger and livelier feeling to the body. It doesn't contain a drop of alcohol nor any dangerous oils. It may not make you feel better after the first dose, nor, perhaps, for several days. But if you don't feel much better and stronger before you have taken a quarter as much as you have on other medicines that didn't help you, we will gladly give you back your money. That's certainly a square deal.

The four Hypophosphites it contains are used by leading physicians everywhere in debility, weakness and liability to disease, to tone and strengthen the nerves. Purest Olive Oil, one of the most nutritious, most easily digested foods known, being taken with the hypophosphites, gives rich tissue nourishment to the entire system.

You who are weak and rundown, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible pleasant-tasting aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of more than 7000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada, and Great Britain. Frank D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, O.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN AT THE PLYMOUTH CHURCH

"The Power in the Resurrection Life," was the theme of Pastor F. E. Holloway in his address at Plymouth Congregational church Monday evening. This service opens the second week of the evangelistic campaign now being conducted by the pastor of Plymouth. The text was that phrase in Peter's sermon on the day of Pentecost found in Acts 2:32, "This Jesus hath raised up, whereof we are all witnesses."

Concluding his sermon with an earnest appeal to all to come forward for decision and prayer who had not accepted the Lord Jesus as personal Savior, or who entertained any doubt as to having been spiritually born anew, more than 20 persons, most of them church members and all of them adults, responded.

The entire service was pervaded by an intense spiritual interest. The singing under Mr. Curtis' leadership is soul-stirring. The red book is used and many new songs have been learned, this keeping the interest in this respect fresh.

Mr. Curtis' solo Monday evening was "Shadows," which he sang with rare beauty and effectiveness. The meetings will continue every evening this week except Saturday. The first half hour, commencing at 7 o'clock is devoted to a song service.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Makes Streaked, Faded or Gray Hair Dark and Glossy At Once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching, scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to set this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Weyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents.

Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly.

You dampen a sponge or soft brush with oil and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes dark, lily white and close, and you look years younger. Agents, Hail's Drug Store.

A Consumptive Cough.

A cough that lasts so continually is one of the earliest and most certain signs of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, lessens the chest trouble, and gives you prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mervin of Glen Ellyn, Ill., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks, nothing failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you.

Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, chest, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50c & 50c. At drugstores, by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis, F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, O.

GEN. VILLA

night and those who accompanied Villa's troops to the south did not return until this morning.

Shortly after the heat of the battle had passed, there came a report that Chihuahua City had fallen to the rebels, having been almost deserted by federals sent to reinforce the government troops at Samalayuca. This report is yet unverified but it is known that a strong band of Constitutionalists under General Chao were in the vicinity of Chihuahua City yesterday. General Villa is taking every precaution against a possible rally by the federals and said he intended to strike today while they yet are in a demoralized condition.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 25.—The Federal troops resumed fighting early today in their attempt to capture Juarez from the Constitutionalists under General Francisco Villa. Apparently they depended on their heavy guns to break the Rebel lines, the battle opening with heavy cannonading.

Simultaneous firing opened at 4:30 this morning southeast of Juarez race track and opposite Yzquierdo, about 12 miles east of Juarez. The Federals used cannon in both attacks. The appearance of the Federals near the race track indicated that they had worked their way around the Rebel outposts during the night.

The heavy fighting at Zaragoza, opposite Yzquierdo was taken to contradict the claim that General Salazar's Federal troops had been surrounded and virtually made prisoners last night. This claim had been made by Juan N. Medina, chief of General Villa's staff. Early today reports from Yzquierdo were that the fighting was heavy, the roar of the cannon being plainly audible.

These reports stated that Villa had taken four wagon loads of supplies and ammunition across the border at Socorro during the night, together with a considerable supply of forage for his cavalry.

The sound of battle south of Juarez, the center of General Villa's battle front, was heard here early but the fighting was not close enough for any missiles to fall in Juarez or El Paso.

Reports received at Rebel headquarters at 9:00 o'clock stated the Rebels had driven the Federal center back to Samalayuca, 32 miles south. However, cannonading could still be heard in Juarez.

It was admitted at that hour that some of the Federals who had passed the Constitutionalists' right wing last night were fighting for the water supply at Rancho Flores, 12 miles northwest of Juarez.

Passports were demanded today from all Americans who appeared in the streets of Juarez. Street car traffic across the international bridge was not stopped but persons having no business in Juarez were hustled back to El Paso by Rebel guards.

All the hotels in Juarez were closed during the night by the Rebels for use as hospitals.

Many wounded were reported left on the field.

A machine gun platoon and Troop C. of the Thirteenth United States cavalry, under Captain John Lewis were reported enroute from Columbus, N. M., to reinforce the border patrol. The machine gun platoon was to reinforce Troop D, Thirteenth cavalry at the international bridge, Troop C. being stationed at the El Paso foundry. Troop L, Thirteenth cavalry, Captain W. H. Clinton, enroute from Noria N. M., was to be stationed at the El Paso smelter.

BATTLE RAGES AT LAS VACAS

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 25.—A battle between Mexican federals and rebels at Las Vacas, Mexico, opposite Del Rio, Texas, was reported in progress today. It was said each side had 400 men in the fight.

STEAMING FOR THE OIL PORT

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Washington, Nov. 25.—"All quiet at Tuxpan" was the message by wireless early today from Rear Admiral Fletcher on the battleship Rhode Island, steaming with John Lind for the most important oil port on the Mexican Gulf coast. The battleship New Hampshire already is at Tuxpan. The Constitutionalists, General Aguilar has renewed his assurances that his men will commit no depredations on the valuable British and American oil properties there, which are the subject of so much concern.

SHOT TO DEATH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 25.—Standing against an adobe wall, chipped by the bullets which have ended scores of other lives, Lieutenant Jose Castro of the Augua Prieta garrison, was shot to death today in view of the entire population of the Mexican border town.

Castro paid the penalty imposed by a court martial for having slain Maximiliano Montalvo, a former wealthy Mexican land holder, but reduced by the fortunes of war to the necessity of driving a huck. He was killed in a dispute over the fare he charged Castro. Captain Gil Sarmiento, with a force of about 100 men who have been guarding Ojinias Pass, left today to reinforce Villa at Juarez. Constitutionalists recruiting agents were busy recruiting 1000 new men to send to the rebel army at Chihuahua.

"OW!" CORNS? "USE "GETS-IT"

"GETS-IT," the New-Plan Corn Cure, Makes Any Corn Shriveled, Vacant.

You'll say, "It does beat all how quick "GETS-IT" got rid of that corn. It's almost magic." "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as a gun risks. It takes about 2 seconds.

A small illustration shows a woman sitting in a chair, holding a corn on the cob. The text says: "Madam, if you'd use "GETS-IT" for corns, you could wear any tight shoe easily."

Good to apply it. Corn pains stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone. Ever try and the like it to be true. "GETS-IT" is not messy, fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poison. "GETS-IT" is equally good to healthy or irritated flesh. It "gets" every corn, wart, callus and bunion you've got.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago.

ACTRESS, A SUICIDE, MAY BE DAUGHTER OF N. Y. DOCTOR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Maida Dupree, a vaudeville actress, who registered at a hotel as "Betty Daly" of New York, committed suicide last night by taking poison, after she had left a note addressed to George La Maire, an actor, to call up the room on the telephone. The police said today they believed the young woman had been infatuated with La Maire. The authorities said they believed she was the daughter of a New York physician.

When La Maire received the note he tried to get the woman's room on the phone, and an investigation resulted in finding her unconscious on the floor with a poison bottle at her side. She died in a hospital. La Maire told the police he met the girl several months ago in a music hall in London and had never heard of her again until last night. Among the girl's effects was jewelry valued at about $2,000 and two pawn tickets for jewelry pledged in New York for $370.
